OLYMPIA — The license of Snohomish County pharmacist Paul A. Malloy (PH00017757) has been indefinitely suspended by the Board of Pharmacy and the Washington State Department of Health.

Malloy is currently unable to practice with reasonable skill and safety due to a mental or physical condition. He cannot practice as a pharmacist unless he complies with requirements to ensure that he can practice safely.

The Board of Pharmacy immediately suspended Malloy on January 27, 2012. The action to indefinitely suspend his license completes the legal process.
